ZJPAS review form

Please remember that reviews should be conducted in complete confidentiality. The requested evaluation of the article should not be shared with a third party. The ZJPAS editors support additional feedback, but all participants must maintain confidentiality in the review process. You should avoid contacting the author(s). When you submit your review, remember that any recommendations you make will affect the editor-in-chief's final decision.

This form needs you to evaluate the article based on various criteria. Please select one of the provided options in the option that appears next to each item to rate it.
