

Elections of ACI Iraq Chapter officers

According to Article four, section 1 of the bylaws, the chapter officers are president, vice president, directors, and secretary (executive director). All of them except the secretary should be ACI members, and the secretary either elected if he is ACI member, or appointed if he is not elected officer. ACI chapter members shall elect the president, vice president, and directors.

The term of the president and vice president is one year according to Article four, section four of the bylaws. In the first term of ACI Iraq Chapter, the sixteen founders are the only chapter members. Hence, they participated in the elections of the ACI Iraq Chapter president, vice president, and executive director. The elections were done online at first of October 2013, and the results showed that the first president of the ACI Iraq Chapter is Dr. Riadh Al-Mahaidi and the first vice president is Dr. Omar Aziz and the first executive director is Dr. Ali Attiyah.
