Daily Participation Question:

-What do we mean by diversity education?

-Do you think diversity will create a balance between (self) and (the other)?

Do you think diversity will create a balance between (self/individual) and (the other/society)?

Do you think we live in a self-realized society/all the members of the society were self-realized or not? Exemplify it.

-if you could change one of these concepts from internal dimensions, which ones are you going to change and why? From yourself and from the society?

-Which stages of life is the most important one and why?

1. Gender' as a concept, Is it a negative or positive one? Why?

2. Write down the 'male' and 'female' duties, then on what base do you sort their duties?

3. How do you value the role and importance of females in everyday life?

4. Do you think that females have much role in cities or outside them? Are their duties similar in cities and rural areas?