Biography:

I was born on 01/08/1981 in Rawandz. I was brought up in a religious and social family. Because of the deportation of our village by the Baath regime in 1987, and our flight to areas under the control of the Peshmerga, I was delayed in going to school for two years. I completed my primary and secondary school in Soran and high school in Erbil. I have been living in Erbil since 2002. I am married and the father of two children. My hobbies are reading, walking and swimming.
