Dear Ari Nabi,

On behalf of the Certification Body of the International Federation of Biosafety Associations (IFBA), we would like to congratulate you on your certification as a Certified Professional in Biorisk Management. IFBA's certificants have achieved a high standard of excellence and international recognition among colleagues. We encourage you to continue to identify yourself as an IFBA certificant by displaying the attached certificate, carrying your "IFBA Certified Professional" card and wearing your new lapel pin. A copy of the logo for use on your business cards can be downloaded from the IFBA website.

We hope you continue to enjoy the benefits of your certification and of membership in the IFBA certified professional community.

With very best regards,

T. Bruce Anderson
Chair, Certification Body
