ICASEE-2018

Date: 20.03.2018

Dear professor Asoz Omer Abdullah

This is our great privilege to inform you that the scientific committee of 5th International Conference on Applied Science, Energy and Environment (ICASEE-2018), after rigorous review, has decided to accept your abstract to be presented at ICASEE-2018 conference.

Abstract code and title:

BIO 11	Morphological, chemical and anatomical study on different rapeseed genotypes in Erbil
---------------	--

Presentation type: Oral presentation

Presentations will take 15 minutes plus 5 minutes for discussions.

In order to be included in the Conference Program, every speaker is required to register to the system via the following registration link <http://www.ishik.edu.iq/conf/icasee/speakers-registration/> and required to submit their payment on site at the day of the Conference upon arrival at Ishik University.

We would kindly like to remind you that your abstracts will be included in the conference abstract book if all authors register for the conference. Moreover, selected full papers of ICASEE-2018 are going to be published either in EAJSE journal of Ishik University or ZANCO Journal of Pure and Applied Sciences of Salahaddin University with a special issue number and DOI number that is approved by Ministry of Higher Education of KRG (<http://www.ishik.edu.iq/conf/icasee/dates/>). So, your full paper is required to be matched with the template of EAJSE journal of Ishik University that may be downloaded from <http://eajse.org/index.php/author-guideline/> and ZANCO Journal of Pure and Applied Sciences of Salahaddin University that may be downloaded from <http://zancojournals.su.edu.krd/index.php/JPAS/about/submissions#Scientificins>

Thank you for your contribution to ICASEE-2018.

We look forward to seeing you in Ishik University, Erbil.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Süleyman Çelik
