Subject Admission and Scholarship letter
Making Research Work 10 April to 14 July 2023

Dear Ms Hadi,

Congratulations! I am pleased to send you your formal admission letter for Making Research Work that will be held from 10 April to 14 July 2023.

Please now confirm your availability and acceptance of the Orange Knowledge Programme (OKP) scholarship and conditions.

The course will include the following elements: weekly online group sessions, practical exercises, individual feedback from our trainers, as well as coaching. You will receive access to iCRA's online learning platform, where you can complete the course and practical exercises at your own pace. The program includes one week of face-to-face group training from 21 to 28 June 2023 in The Netherlands. Exact dates are subject to change.

The Orange Knowledge Programme (OKP)-scholarship consists of the following:

1. Tuition fee
2. Your return international airfare and local travel in The Netherlands from the airport to the training location, which is also the hotel
3. Accommodation with breakfast for the duration of the course, an evening meal (or meal allowance)
4. Morning tea/coffee and lunch on course days
5. Health insurance (arranged by ICRA) for the duration of the face-to-face part of the course

Note: This is a fast-paced, high-level course with a workload of 8 hours per week. The scholarship should be considered a contribution to the cost of your participation. We have previously sent you the "OKP Scholarship Conditions" which you have accepted. If you are not able to provide the above-mentioned contribution or if you leave the course without a valid reason after the start date, you will have to pay the full tuition fee of 4797 EUR yourself.

We are looking forward to welcoming you on this course.

With kind regards,

Mariette S. Gross
Executive Director
