

Full Name: _____

Group: _____

Q.1 State whether the following sentences are “True” or “False”. Correct the false ones. (10 Marks)

1. Proximity means how close teachers should be to the students they are working with.
2. One of the important points of knowing students names is to acknowledge each person as an individual, someone you pay attention to and are interested in.
3. One of the eliciting tools is closed questions
4. Positive interactions between teachers and their students play an important role in determining student success.
5. In fixed seating, learners can make eye contact with everyone else in the group and thus interact much more naturally.

Q.2 Write whether you agree or disagree with the following statements. Give reasons and examples to support your answer: (8 Marks)

1. People usually learn best by trying things out and finding out what works.
2. The teacher should speak as little as possible in classroom time.

Q.3 Answer A or B: (12 Marks)

- A. Write the techniques of building Rapport. Then, explain one of them.
- B. Write the advantages of orderly rows in classroom. Then, explain in brief.

The Examiner
Dastan A. Saeed
November 2022

Full Name: _____

Group: _____

Q.1 Regarding seating arrangement, Write five advantages of circles and U-Shaped. Then explain them in detail. (10 Marks)

Q.2 Write whether you agree or disagree with the following statements. Give reasons and examples to support your answer: (8 Marks)

1. It is more important for learners to listen and speak to teachers than for learners to listen and speak to each other.
2. Students should get conversation practice in interacting with other learners rather than with you.

Q.3 Answer A or B: (12 Marks)

A. Explain the four aspects of teachers' physical presence in classroom in detail: Proximity, Appropriacy, Movement, and Awareness

B. Write six techniques of effective eliciting. Then, explain one of them in detail.

The Examiner
Dastan A. Saeed
November 2022