

Workshop Agenda

10:00am - 11:15am	Introductions - What is entrepreneurship? - Importance of entrepreneurship in a local context.
11:15am - 11:30am	Break
11:30am - 12:30pm	- How to get started - Tools to help you start your entrepreneurial journey - Can anyone do it?
12:30pm - 1:00pm	- Success Story - Closing words

Trainers

1	Safeen Raouf MBA, PMP®, B.E.	Safeen is a holder of Executive Master in Business Administration (MBA) at University of Kurdistan - Hawler (UKH) as Top ranked, Project Management Professional (PMP®) certified, and a Bachelor in civil engineering at Salahaddin University. A business consultant for AUB (American University of Beirut). A project management expert with 15 years of experience in construction projects.
2	Arian Hama Entrepreneur/ Marketing Consultant	Master in Business Administration. 11 years of working experience as an entrepreneur, covering the fields of retail, distribution, service, brand development &amp; real estate. Working as a marketing consultant, setting business's marketing strategy, marketing plan, branding &amp; designing marketing campaigns.
3	Rawa Jelizada Founder of R.J Fabrics	which is a small business of printing my artworks and handmade Kurdish patterns on fabric, based in erbil. R.J fabrics is the first local fabrics prints in Kurdistan. I have a bachelor degree in Law. I'm a writer, artist and entrepreneur. Started oil painting in 2009. Published my short stories in 2013. Opened my first art exhibition in 2016, and started my online business of selling my artworks afterwards. Established R.J fabrics in 2019. It has lines of fabrics, scarves, kurdish vests, hair and bag accessories.