Dear Prof. Abdallah,

We wish to thank you so much for having provided to us your valuable opinion on the manuscript entitled Neohesperidin, a flavanone glycoside resourced from Curcuma amada rhizome, holds the key to the remediation of Diabetes Mellitus: An integrated experimental and computational study. We have really appreciated the quality and details of the review; this is very important to us, as we depend on the support of good Reviewers such as you for ensuring the quality of the articles we publish.

You will shortly receive a notification from Elsevier's reviewer recognition platform, which provides you with a link to your "My Elsevier Reviews" private profile page, certificates, editor recognition as well as discounts for Elsevier services.

As a token of appreciation, we would like to provide you with a review recognition certificate on Elsevier Reviewer Hub (reviewerhub.elsevier.com). Through the Elsevier Reviewer Hub, you can also keep track of all your reviewing activities for this and other Elsevier journals on Editorial Manager.

If you have not yet activated your 30 day complimentary access to ScienceDirect and Scopus, you can still do so via the [Rewards] section of your profile in Reviewer Hub (reviewerhub.elsevier.com).
You can always claim your 30-day access period later, however, please be aware that the access link will expire six months after you have accepted to review.

Kind regards,

Emilio
