

Question Bank
Language Testing Practice
Second Semester (2023-2024)

Q1: Answer the following based on this material.

1. Which aspect of language has been intended to test? 2. Write an accurate instruction.
3. Which question type has been used?
4. Do they test recognition or production level? How?
5. Which two question types can be converted to?

Q2: Convert the following material to the question types below: 1. Two-

- selection Task (testing vocabulary)
2. Transformation Task (testing vocabulary)

Note: Each of them should be three items.

Q3: Mention FOUR question types for testing pronunciation.

Q4: State EIGHT categories for observation as a classroom assessment technique to young learners.

Q5: Construct (an) interesting/creative question(s) based on the following photo for testing speaking to young learners.

Q6: Write down a description for elementary level (you will read it for the test takers in the exam day) in order to ask them to draw a picture for developing a question for testing their listening skill.

Q7: Construct an interesting question for testing writing.

Question type: Replying an email

Level: Pre-intermediate level

Q8: As an EFL teacher in a language course for intermediate level, after exam you received Sima's writing about "Immigration". Find out the mistakes, identify the mistake types by appropriate symbols. Score her work out of 10.

Q9: Mention the three-rule marking strategy? Explain them.

Q10: In your opinion, which question type of each of the following is the most interesting, challenging, and simplest one? Give the reason of your answer briefly.

1. Testing Speaking

2. Testing Grammar

Example: For Testing Writing:

The most interesting question type is.....because..... The most challenging question type is.....because..... The simplest question type is.....because.....

Q11: Write TEN common symbols and their meaning which can be used for identifying the mistakes while marking exam papers.

Q12: Give instruction of the following question types:

1. Cartoon Story (Testing Writing)
2. Gapped or whistled dictation (Testing Listening) 3. Ask for Details (Testing Reading)
4. Sound Definition (Testing Pronunciation)
5. Picture-labeling task (Testing Vocabulary)