

Question Bank
Entrepreneurship Education
First Semester (2023-2024)

Q1: Mention six characteristics of entrepreneurs. Which do you think is the most important one? Why?

Q2: Distinguish between traditional learning and problem-based learning in the following three aspects:

(Receiving and collecting information, more memorable, solving problems).

Q3: Answer the following:

- a. Discuss entrepreneurship and its overall impact on the community.
- b. Define entrepreneurial teacher from three different perspectives.

Q4: Answer the following:

a. "It's not that I'm so smart, it's just that I stay with problems longer." Einstein said.

Explain Einstein's statement by giving four benefits of the critical thinking process.

b. How do you handle conflict within a teamwork environment and ensure everyone's views are listened and considered?

Q5: Define entrepreneurship education? What is the importance of entrepreneurship in this current situation in Kurdistan in terms of the following:

- 1 .Educational sector (schools and universities)
- 2 .Economic development

Q6: Mention THREE rewards of being entrepreneur.

Q7: A company of educational sector faced financial failure after the outbreak of Covid-19 .

This was a headline of a local news. Write down TEN different questions as a critical thinker to know the way of running the working, the causes of the failure and identify the problem.

Q8: A project has been announced by government for building a nursery in a year. You, are as a capitalist and an entrepreneur, have got (100) million dinars. By considering the current money that you have, the cost and the quality of the project, what are the points that you would consider them to satisfy the customers, get enough profit to complete the project on time.

Q9: Define each of the concepts of entrepreneurship and entrepreneurship education and state their similarities and differences.

Q10: If you have an opportunity to interview an entrepreneur, what are the FOUR most important critical questions you would like to ask about his/her successful business journey.

Q11: State FOUR of the rewards of being an entrepreneur.

Q12: As a future teacher, how are you going to try to teach your students to work in groups (to encourage teamwork) in your speciality? Describe an activity in detail in which you teach your students to work in groups.

Q13: You, as an entrepreneur, have held the first meeting of the new season with the team of your (Carpet Factory) to have preparation for major changes in products and marketing methods.

Write a detailed meeting minute covering all the items of the minutes.

Note: You should never mention your name or your own teammate name(s) in the meeting minute. You have to use only job positions instead.

Q14: In one of the local newspapers, job opportunities were announced for men and women. This job opportunity was to supervise investment projects with new techniques and new mentality (mindset). For this reason, the requirements for admission as an entrepreneur were many and difficult. What do you think these characteristics should have been?

Q15: What do you find most enjoyable about entrepreneurship? Which do you find most difficult? Why?

Q16: State FOUR justifications (reasons) for problem-based learning theory and briefly discuss them.

Q17: As a teacher (or a future teacher), how are you going to try to teach your students to think critically in your speciality? Describe an activity in detail in which you teach your students to think critically.