

QUESTION BANK

Q1: Define the following words?

(Dichogamy - Protandry - Monoecious - Protogyny)

Q2: Fill in the blanks with correct words?

1 – Temperate deciduous species are confined mostly to the middle latitudes, from about — to —.

2 – The orchard should not be planted less than about — meters up from the base of a slope.

3 – The windbreak trees are like reservoirs of cold air and many also compete for —, — and — .

4 – Flowers and young fruit are more tender from spring frosts than — fruit.

5 – In the beginning, during the later summer season, the deciduous tree must stop growing, by — and —.

Q3: Answer only Ten (10) of the following question?

1 – Write the scientific and family name of walnut fruit tree?

2 – The concentration of the commercial production of each species in relatively few areas has occurred, why?

3 – The many exceptions to these generalizations of fruit trees are due to, what?

4 – Why, the Windbreaks should be planting not be closer than about 25 meters to the fruit trees?

5 – The delay of bloom on north facing slopes can be value, for what reason?

6 – The temperate deciduous tree or shrub responds to seasonal changes in a number of ways, depending upon?

Q4: What are the main climatic limitations for Persian walnuts in the western U.S.A?

Q5: What happen to walnut fruit when the summer is very hot (37.8 °C) and humidity is low?

Q6: The trunks of walnut should be painted white, why?

Q7: A large number of factors are influence the germination of seeds, such as?