Please delete any redundant files before completing the submission. Because these will be your final files for production, the following should be noted:

--Paper should be uploaded as a double-spaced Word document. This document should include title, all author names and affiliations (department + institution + country), abstract, key words, acknowledgments, references, author biographies, and list of figure captions.

--Author Biographies should follow the following format: JANE DOE is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Geography at Kalamazoo University, Kalamazoo, MI 12345. E-mail: jdoe@ukzoo.edu. Her research interests include the conditions of homeworkers in developing-world countries and the issue of access to the Internet among teenagers in rural areas.

--All tables should be uploaded in a separate Word file.

--Figures should be uploaded as high-resolution TIF or EPS files (see Graphics Guidelines with additional file requirements). Please note that submitting graphics that don't meet these standards will result in delays to online publication. Please also note the AAG's color printing policy for the Annals: Authors are given the opportunity to print up to four color figures in each article at no charge (for special issue papers, authors are allowed to print up to two color figures at no charge). Authors wishing to include additional print color figures will be expected to pay $200 for each additional figure.

If you have any questions, please contact Managing Editor Jennifer Cassidento at jcassidento@aag.org. Thank you for your interest in the Annals of the American Association of Geographers. I look forward to seeing your paper published.

Best wishes,
Dr. David R. Butler
Editor, Annals of the American Association of Geographers

Title: Enhancing Solar Power Plant Location Selection through Multi-Criteria Decision-Making with the Analytic Hierarchy Process (AHP)

On page 3, line 52, more information is needed about the reference Morad, for example, the date of publication. Additionally, on page 8, line 176, the authors refer to table 2 instead of table 1, so please correct it in the text. The manuscript can be accepted for publication in the journal Annals of the American Association of Geographers.
