

1. Identify different types of fruit crops, which can be successfully grown in the learner's region.
2. Explain or describe different families of deciduous fruit tree and most important groups, varieties or cultivars of each family, the description include (description of stem, leaf, flower and fruit of the tree).
3. Identify the major orchard culture practices and choosing the best time of each one that include (Irrigation, fertilization, training and pruning, weed and insect control and harvesting of fruit) and identify different method of each practices.
4. Discuss and demonstrate various methods of plant propagation.
5. Environmental factors that affect growth and development of tree and fruits.