

Mid Term Exam (MA Course- Linguistics)

2023-2024

Q1/ Define the following:

(Choose 4) (8 Marks)

Conversion , haplology , empty morph , stem extender , morpho phonemics.

Q2/ Explain the following:

(6 Marks)

- 1- Morphs are said to be in complementary distribution.
- 2- In two ways derivational morphemes form new words however, inflectional morphemes do not change referential or cognitive meaning.
- 3- How do we know when to recognise a single sound or a group of sounds as representing a morpheme?

Q3/ Talk about the relationship between Morphology and other linguistic levels like Phonology, Syntax, and Semantics.

(6 Marks)

Good Luck