Dear Dr.Kawa Wali,

You are kindly helping us to review a paper for the journal Global Business and Economics Review.
Title: "Financial revenues from land in Vietnam: Factors affecting their collection"
Submission code: GBER-107703

We have received the author's revised version of the submission, amended in light of your and other reviewer comments.

Please now:

- verify that the author has made the required amendments and then complete a new online evaluation form
- select your new recommendation decision
- indicate in the comments boxes whether you are satisfied with the corrections made.

These comments are useful for both the author and me, the journal editor, so you do need to record them in the system in this way.

The evaluation form is available at:

QUALITY AND RIGOUR

Have you checked the equations and/or statistics? (if applicable): yes

Are you aware of prior publication or presentation of this work?: no

Is the manuscript free of commercialism?: yes

Is the article too long?: no

RECOMMENDATION: Acceptable with minor revisions

REVIEW COMMENTS:

Changes which must be made before publication:

1. The title of the paper should be changed: see comments
2. Abstract needs to be rewritten: see comments
3. Previous studies need a suggested arrangement: see comments
4. Table 8 is not clear and needs more clarification: see comments
5. The hypotheses need further clarification: see comments
6. The conclusions also need to be rewritten, especially the upper section: see comments

Suggestions which would improve the quality of the article but are not essential for publication:

I would look for if the manuscript findings add any new information or fill the gaps identified in previously published work.
