

GLOBAL SOLUTIONS CONVERSATIONS

Interested in virtual exchange and connecting with students from the United States, Iraq or Jordan? Interested in discussing sustainability and making a difference in your community?

Students from selected schools in the US, Jordan and Iraq meet live in binational groups to discuss global challenges inspired by the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Through a six-week virtual exchange, students practice cross cultural communication and learn about each other's culture as they engage in the process of design thinking and discuss global issues in their community.

Join the Virtual Conversation

October 2022 – December 2022

Incentives

After completing the Challenge, students will:

- Certificate of participation
- Become alumni of the US Department of State afforded opportunities for professional development
- Receive electronic YES Badges to add directly to LinkedIn / CV

“It was amazing to have this conversation discussing real challenges experienced around the world. If all countries could be brought together in these types of virtual exchange programs, years from now, we just may be able to realize the world as one nation.”

Student, United States

Group Participation Information

If you are interested in participating, contact the faculty member below.

Group Faculty Advisor

Contact Information

Program activities for Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 pending further program funding.*

The Global Solutions Conversations program is supported by the Stevens Initiative, which is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, with funding provided by the U.S. Government, and is administered by the Aspen Institute. The Stevens Initiative is also supported by the Bezos Family Foundation and the government of Morocco and the United Arab Emirates.

