To whom it may concern

I attest that Dr. Narmen Ali Muhamad Amen is the author or co-author of several articles (see list herewith), in the first volume of the series “Etudes Mésopotamiennes – Mesopotamian Studies (EMMS)”, prepared by the Association of which I am the president, “Association pour le Développement des Etudes Mésopotamiennes (ADEM)”. The volume is now under press by Archaeopress (Oxford, United Kingdom) and will be published before the end of 2018.

Moreover, Dr. Narmen Ali Muhamad Amen has translated into Arabic and Kurdish the summaries of all the articles published in this volume. The Scientific Committee of the Series EMMS is grateful to Dr. Narmen Ali Muhamad Amen for her collaboration.

All the articles of this volume have been submitted to international peer reviewing. This new series (EMMS) is recognized as an important media for the publication of archaeological and historical contributions for the Near East regions in Antiquity. It is funded by several French academic and scientific institutions (CNRS, Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Labex REsMed, Paris).
