

Question Bank of Agribusiness

Q1/ How you can write an efficient curriculum vitae so you can be qualified for a specific job after graduation whether in the government or private sector?

Q2/ Mention the followings:

- a- The most important signal of finishing the compost and it is readiness to be used in the field then explain in another scenario what will happen if you didn't follow carefully the steps and instructions of preparing the compost and what consequences this behavior will have on your project?
- b- The professional network on the internet you can apply through for a job? How can you create your own profile to be able to communicate?

Q3/ What is home composting and how can you prepare good quality compost from kitchen wastes (i.e. peels of banana, orange, pomegranate, vegetable) and garden wastes (i.e. lawns and leaves) to start a small project.

Q4/ a- Explain the role of marketing in the Agribusiness System.

b-What are the criteria that should be included in the curriculum vitae and cover letter that increase our opportunity to be appointed for the job you have applied for.

c-Difference in Marketing of Agricultural and Manufactured Goods:

d-Markets may be classified on the basis of each of the twelve dimensions mentioned below:-

Q5/Write about the followings:

1. According to Thomsen, the study of agricultural marketing, comprises:
2. Dimensions of a Market
3. For a satisfactory market performance, the market structure should keep pace with the following changes:
4. A perfect market is one in which the following conditions hold good:
5. Agricultural marketing in a broader sense is concerned with:
6. Importance of Agricultural Marketing.
7. Agribusinesses in such chains include:

Q6/ Define the following terms:

1. Secular Markets:
2. National Markets:
3. General Markets:
4. Commodity Markets: