

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highlight the volunteer work of Sherwan Yassin Hammad in his efforts to fight climate change. As a dedicated volunteer at Hasar Organization, Sherwan has made significant contributions to our mission of environmental conservation and sustainability.

Sherwan has actively participated in various initiatives aimed at combating climate change. He has engaged in activities such as tree planting, awareness campaigns, and sustainable practices promotion. His commitment, passion, and willingness to take action have been inspiring to both our team and the community we serve.

I highly recommend Sherwan Yassin Hammad for any opportunities related to environmental conservation and climate change initiatives. His experience, knowledge, and dedication make him a valuable asset to any organization working towards a sustainable future.

Sincerely,
Gashbin Ali
President
