

QUESTION BANK OF ANIMAL ECOLOGY

Q/

1. Which is NOT an example of a "Grinnellian" ecological niche?
2. Indian gazelles are introduced to the Algerian desert where a similar gazelle species lives. What would the Competitive Exclusion Principle predict?
3. A mainland fruit-eating bird is introduced to an island with more fruit-eating competitors. Which is the most likely scenario?
 4. Feeding modes are just one aspect of an animal's ecological niche.
5. Six Caribbean lizard species feed on insects, but from different parts of the trees. What best explains their behavior?
6. Animals typically employ a single strategy to dodge predators, such as fighting back or grouping up.