

5. practical grammar exercises on the use of tenses , clause types , and subject – verb concord which are necessary to be mastered in this term for Kurdish in to English practical translation.
6. carrying out more inclass evaluation tasks / tests in K~E translation , since a good performance in English language mastery is required , it depends also on the student's background in this field ; more over Translation in to English is a practical application of what he has gained throughout his study of grammar and syntax at English Department.
7. some practical training in interpreting for the ( 4th -year ) students of English .
8. Evaluation test on Kurdish to English translation.